SALT LAKE CITY
POLICE DEPARTMENT
- Serving with Integrity

ABOUT

The Salt Lake City Police Department's Volunteer Corps is a great way to make a difference in your neighborhood. This program offers members special training to report and deter crime.

Through their presence and community involvement, the Volunteer Corps promotes an enhanced feeling of safety and security for citizens in residential, commercial and public areas. We are more effective when we work together in the fight against crime, and the SLCPD Volunteer Corps needs you.

"I am proud to be a long time member of the Salt Lake City Police Department's Volunteer Corps. Thanks to this program, I feel that our community is a safer, better place to live and raise a family."

*Joyce Cheney,
Area Coordinator
Member since 1999*

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

There are a variety of things to do as a Volunteer Corps member. We will teach you how to:

- use a police radio
- patrol
- observe and report
- spot DUI drivers
- write handicap parking tickets
- verify loud party calls
- search for missing persons
- assist visitors to the Public Safety Building
- conduct police history tours
- talk with fellow citizens about public safety

You will make a difference. So grab a friend and join us today!
