SLCPD Statement on Incident at Regional Athletic Complex

SALT LAKE CITY – On Saturday September 11, 2021, the Salt Lake City Police Department responded to the Salt Lake City Regional Athletic Complex, located at 2280 North Rose Park Lane, to investigate a disturbance involving attendees of a soccer tournament.

The investigation began at approximately 2:30 p.m. when SLC911 received information about a fight involving a weapon, later determined to be a rifle. Within 19 minutes of receiving the first 9-1-1 call, officers had secured the area and contacted multiple people.

Based on the preliminary investigation, the argument does not appear to be related to the soccer tournament or any of the games occurring at the complex. Further, it does not appear that any shots were fired during this incident.

Officers are continuing their investigation into the physical fight and are trying to determine the exact details of how the rifle may have been involved and are trying to determine whether any criminal act occurred involving the weapon.

No arrests have been made. The SLCPD has identified the primary involved parties.

Anyone with information on this case should call 801-799-3000 and reference case number 21-166016.
